WHAT IS PLANNING POLICY?

Planning Policy involves making plans that help to decide where and when development takes place. We use Planning Policy to help make decisions on planning applications. It is also used to plan for our future needs by assessing what change is likely to happen and where. The key Planning Policy document a council must prepare is its Local Plan.

Currently, there are regulations as to what constitutes a Local Plan, and we will comply with the relevant prevailing regulations when consulting on all of our Planning Policy documents. We will make any background papers available to view, which either: disclose any facts or matters related to the subject matter; or were relied on to a material extent, in preparing our Planning Policy documents<sup>1</sup>.

The Government places an emphasis on councils to seek involvement from local communities on the content of plans at the earliest stage in plan-making. It also guides councils to fully support and encourage the active role communities can play in the plan-making process e.g. through neighbourhood planning.

WHAT IS NEIGHBOURHOOD PLANNING?

The Government is providing local communities with the opportunity to shape the area in which they live and work<sup>2</sup>, by encouraging them to prepare Neighbourhood Plans. The council strongly encourages and supports local communities who wish to prepare a neighbourhood plan and has put resources in place to help communities in preparing plans.

Local communities wishing to play an active role in planning for their area can now do two things:

- prepare a Neighbourhood Plan setting out the vision, objectives and planning policies to shape development of their neighbourhood and/or;
- seek a grant of permission directly for certain types of development in their neighbourhood through a Neighbourhood Development Order (NDO) or a Community Right to Build Order (CRtBO).

HOW WILL YOU INVOLVE ME IN THE PREPARATION OF PLANNING POLICY DOCUMENTS?

We want our plan-making to fully consider and take account of community views. We will continue to explore methods to carry out consultations and to learn from what is and isn't successful when engaging with our communities.

At all stages of plan-making, we will always publicise any consultation material and accompanying documents on our website. Consultees registered on our database, for planning matters, will always be notified (by letter or email) of any consultations on future plan-making proposals.

All of our Planning Policy documents are made available electronically. We will also make information available in other ways, if appropriate.

We will always ensure that our consultations on Planning Policy documents are as extensive as possible. Depending on the scope of the consultation, the methods which are employed can include one or more of the following examples as set out in Table 1. This list is not exclusive, there are other methods that we may use.

Table 1: Methods we use to consult on our Planning Policy documents

1	Make consultation material available on our website
2	Hold public meetings
3	Workshops (Towns and Parishes; Stakeholders)
4	Public exhibitions (staffed and un-staffed)
5	Publish questionnaires and response
6	Publish leaflets, posters and bulletins (paper and/ or email)
7	Publish press releases to local media
8	Publish formal notices in newspapers circulating across the district*
9	Notify consultees registered on our database (for planning related matters) by email and/or letter
10	Social Media (e.g. Twitter and Facebook)
11	Targeted work with access groups, ethnic minority groups and young people
12	Targeted work with community groups and voluntary organisations
13	Targeted work with the Resident's Panel

HOW DO WE CONSULT?

The methods of consultation we will use will vary depending on the nature of the Planning Policy document, the stage of the document being consulted ~~on~~ and the geographical scope or nature of the planning issue being considered in the document.

A Supplementary Planning Document (SPD) for example, may focus on proposals and policies that affect a smaller geographical area, (e. g. a town or parish or a specific location), whereas a Local Plan may focus on policies and proposals that affect the whole district, and/or other neighbouring council areas.

We may seek to undertake focussed events with community groups and voluntary organisations and our hard to reach groups, as well as adopting our usual consultation methods, for development proposals that may affect a specific location or area.

In most cases, wider consultation will be carried out where our proposals and/or policies affect a wider geographical area.

Some planning issues may cross administrative boundaries, such as planning for strategic infrastructure or planning for the sustainable development or use of land. We need to take into account our neighbouring council's policies and proposals for addressing these strategic matters in the process of making local plans. This falls under the Duty to Cooperate. The Duty ensures that we will work with our neighbouring councils and other public bodies to plan effectively for sustainable development that extends beyond our own administrative boundaries. Further information on who we are required to consult with under the Duty is explained in the section below.

WHO DO WE CONSULT?

Local Communities

We always look to understand whom we need to try and talk to in the local community in order to ensure that we consult in the most effective way. The local community includes, but is not limited to, the following: towns and parishes; local residents; local interest groups; local businesses; local community groups and organisations; and 'hard to reach' groups. We will seek to engage with these groups through both our general consultation procedures and if appropriate, through targeted events, (e.g. public meetings, exhibitions and other forums), to ensure we capture a representative sample of local community views.

Consultation Bodies

Government regulations are clear how important it is that certain bodies are consulted at key stages when preparing local Planning Policy documents (these bodies are sometimes referred to as Statutory Consultees). They include bodies such as the Environment Agency, Historic England, Natural England and Highways England. We will always consult on our Planning Policy documents with the relevant consultation bodies in accordance with the relevant and up to date regulations (Appendix 1).

Duty to Co-operate

The Duty to Co-operate is a legal requirement of plan-making that requires councils to consider planning issues that may affect their neighbouring council areas.

The Government expects councils to work collaboratively with other bodies to ensure that 'cross border' issues are co-ordinated effectively and clearly reflect the policies of each of the councils affected.

The council works closely with its neighbouring councils, and Oxfordshire County Council, in regard to strategic priorities and areas of common interest. These partnerships help us to meet our Duty to Co-operate<sup>ii</sup>.

The Town and Country Planning (Local Planning) (England) Regulations 2012<sup>iii</sup> set out the public bodies that we are required to co-operate with (Appendix 12).

Neighbourhood Planning

When consulting upon an area designation for a new neighbourhood plan, we will always consult with the relevant statutory bodies (e.g. Environment Agency, Natural England and Historic England), neighbouring councils and adjoining towns and parishes.

When consulting upon a draft neighbourhood plan submitted by the qualifying body, either at pre-submission and/or publication stage, we will always consult with those bodies identified in Schedule 1 of the Neighbourhood Planning (General) Regulations 2012 (Appendix 23).

WHEN DO WE CONSULT?

We will consult on our Planning Policy documents at the relevant stages of plan-making, and we will be guided by up to date legislation and Government guidance.

We will carry out Planning Policy consultations in line with the principles for engagement as set out in Part 1 of the SCI, and in accordance with the latest timetable set out in our Local Development Scheme (LDS).

Our start date for Planning Policy consultations will always be set out in a press release and/or formal statutory notice. Before the start of the consultation, we will always notify statutory consultees, and those registered on our consultation database for planning matters, of the commencement dates and period for comment, along with clear guidance regarding how to comment.

Consultation periods may differ depending on the nature of the Planning Policy document being consulted upon.

Legislation currently requires us to consult on Planning Policy documents for the minimum statutory period as set out in Table 2.

Formatted: Indent: Left: 0.19 cm, Right: 0.54 cm, Space Before: 0 pt

Table 2: Minimum statutory period for public consultation on Planning Policy documents

Community Right to Build Order (pre – submission; publication)	6 weeks

The statutory periods in Table 2 are currently guided by the relevant and up to date regulations. Should an update to the relevant legislation indicate any changes to the periods for consultation, we will ensure this is reflected in any forthcoming Planning Policy consultations that we undertake.

We may seek to extend our consultations in certain circumstances, for example, where a public holiday, or a school holiday, falls within the consultation period. We always try to minimise undertaking consultations during holiday periods, however in the event that our consultations do cross over a holiday period we will always seek to extend the deadline. All of our consultations will run for at least two weeks outside of the school holiday period.

We will always publish full details of all Planning Policy consultations on the council website at: <http://www.whitehorsedc.gov.uk/services-and-advice/planning-and-building/planning-policy>

WHAT PLANNING POLICY DOCUMENTS EXIST IN THE VALE OF WHITE HORSE?

Our Local Plan sets out the long term spatial vision for the district. The Local Plan plays a key role in setting out a framework for how future development across the district is to be planned and delivered, and how it will be used to make decisions on planning applications.

Planning applications must be decided in accordance with the Development Plan unless other material planning considerations indicate otherwise.

Local Plan 2031 Part 1: Strategic Sites and Policies

- This sets out the overall development strategy for the district and where new housing and employment should be located

Local Plan 2031 Part 2

- This will include detailed policies and non – strategic allocations not included in the Local Plan 2031 Part 1
- It will also deal with our contribution to Oxford City's unmet housing need, and will focus on supporting Didcot Garden Town

Neighbourhood Plans

- Are prepared by either a town, parish or a neighbourhood forum (also known as the 'qualifying body')
- Are able to establish planning policies for the development and use of land in a neighbourhood, but must broadly accord and be aligned with the strategic policies and proposals in the Local Plan
- Are also used to help determine planning applications

Saved Policies of Local Plan 2011

- These policies will be 'saved' until the adoption of the Local Plan 2031 Part 2

Oxfordshire County Council Minerals and Waste Plan

- This provides up to date Oxfordshire County Council is responsible for preparing this to provide up to date minerals and waste planning policies and proposals for the period up to 2031

WHEN CAN I GET INVOLVED IN THE PREPARATION OF NEW DEVELOPMENT PLAN DOCUMENTS INCLUDING THE LOCAL PLAN?

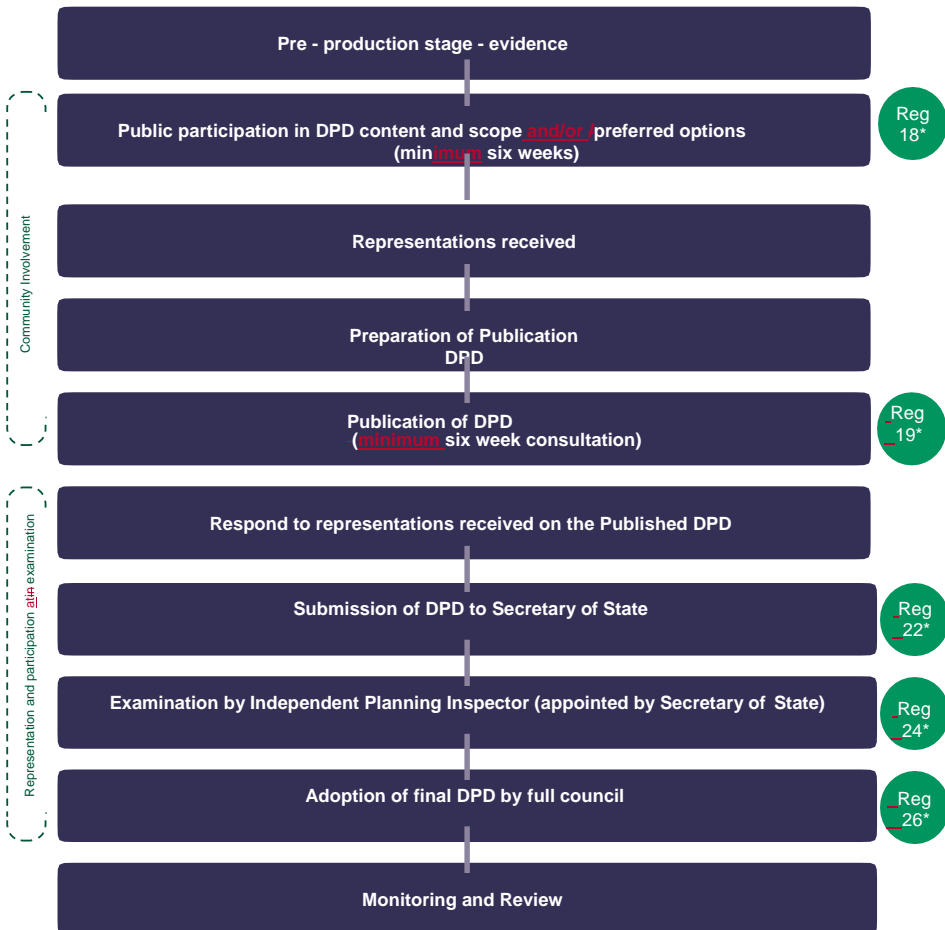

Development Plan Documents (DPDs) are Planning Policy documents that make up and include the Local Plan. They help to guide development by setting out detailed policies that councils use to make their decisions on planning applications.

An Area Action Plan (AAP) is a type of DPD that can be used to guide the development of a specific site or location, for example, a town centre, or other places where significant change is planned.

There are a number of key stages involved in preparing our Development Plan Documents that require public consultation. These stages are designed to ensure that plan-making processes are as open and transparent as possible.

Figure 2 shows the key stages in preparing Development Plan Documents, such as the Local Plan and Area Action Plans (AAP).

Further information on the Local Plan 2031 can be accessed on the council website at: <http://www.whitehorsedc.gov.uk/services-and-advice/planning-and-building/planning-policy/new-local-plan-2031>

WHEN CAN I GET INVOLVED IN THE PREPARATION OF A SUPPLEMENTARY PLANNING DOCUMENT?

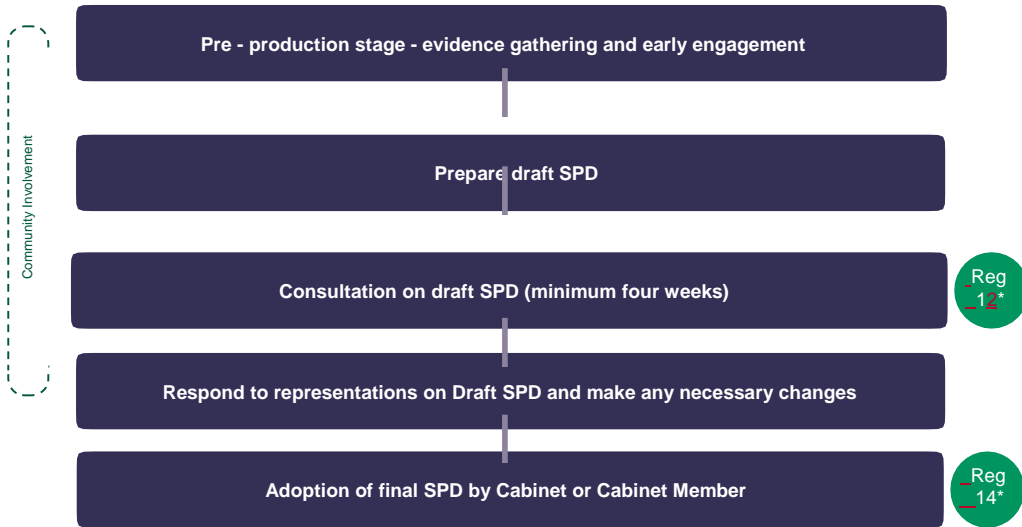

Supplementary Planning Documents (SPDs) are prepared to expand Local Plan policies and provide more detail about policies and proposals. Although legally they do not form part of the Local Plan, or have the same 'weight' as a DPD, they are an important material consideration in determining planning applications.

They can also be produced more quickly as they are not subject to an independent examination. Figure 3 shows the key stages in preparing Supplementary Planning Documents (SPD).

Further information on our SPDs can be found online at: <http://www.whitehorsedc.gov.uk/spd>.

WHEN CAN I GET INVOLVED IN THE PREPARATION OF THE COMMUNITY INFRASTRUCTURE LEVY?

The council has decided to prepare a Community Infrastructure Levy (CIL). The CIL is a tariff-based charging schedule that councils can use to levy financial contributions on new development. Contributions collected are then used to help provide new community facilities and local infrastructure, such as schools, roads, open spaces etc.

The CIL generally deals with off-site mitigation to address planning impacts, whereas Section 106 is a legal agreement that sets out obligations to -deals with on-site planningmitigate planning impacts on-site.

The process for adopting a CIL Charging Schedule involves two formal stages of public consultation. Figure 4 shows the key stages in preparing CIL documents.

Further information on the CIL can be found by visiting: www.whitehorsedc.gov.uk/cil.

WHEN CAN I GET INVOLVED IN THE PREPARATION OF A SUSTAINABILITY APPRAISAL AND STRATEGIC ENVIRONMENTAL ASSESSMENT?

When preparing our Planning Policy documents we are usually required to undertake a Sustainability Appraisal (SA) and/or Strategic Environmental Assessment (SEA) to assess the potential social, environmental and economic effects of the strategies and policies.

An SEA seeks a high level of protection for the environment through the process of plan preparation. The assessment is undertaken where a plan/programme is likely to have significant environmental effects.

A Sustainability Appraisal seeks the most sustainable form of development, by assessing an emerging plan against reasonable alternatives to achieve important environmental, economic and social objectives. An SA incorporates the legal requirements of an SEA.

Where proposals in an SPD or Neighbourhood Development Plan or Order are likely to have significant environmental effects that have not already been assessed when preparing a Local Plan, an SEA may be required, and groups may choose to undertake an SA.

The council will consult on draft SA/SEA reports, alongside the draft version of the plan to which it relates. For example, the SA Report should be published alongside the Publication Version of a DPD. It may also be appropriate to publish any SEA reports alongside early consultation documents, at the same time as it consults on the main documents to which they relate, such as an SPD.

WHEN CAN I GET INVOLVED IN THE PREPARATION OF A LOCAL DEVELOPMENT ORDER?

A Local Development Order (LDO) is made by the council and grants planning permission to specific types of development within a defined area.

The purpose of the LDO is to streamline the planning process by removing the need for developers to make a planning application to the council.

The extent of public consultation will depend on the nature and scale of the proposal. For example, an LDO for a specific site may require focussed consultation with the town and/or parish and a range of community groups.

Proposals for a Local Development Order that cover a broader scope may require wider and proportionate consultation where necessary.

* The Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order 2015

WHEN CAN I GET INVOLVED IN THE PREPARATION OF A NEIGHBOURHOOD PLAN OR A NEIGHBOURHOOD DEVELOPMENT ORDER?

The council will continue to proactively engage with communities who wish to prepare a neighbourhood plan. We will support communities in planning effectively for their towns and villages.

A Neighbourhood Development Order (NDO) can be used to permit different types of development (in full or outline) without the need for planning permission. When preparing an NDO, it must still be in line with national and local policy and other legal requirements.

The town, parish or neighbourhood forum is the only body that can prepare a Neighbourhood Development Order in their area.

The process for making a Neighbourhood Plan or a Neighbourhood Development Order is different than preparing a Local Plan or a Development Plan Document.

Figure 7 shows the key stages when preparing a Neighbourhood Plan and/or a Neighbourhood Development Order (NDO).

** If more than 50 per cent of people who voted in the referendum supported the plan/order, the council must adopt it

WHEN CAN I GET INVOLVED IN THE PREPARATION OF A COMMUNITY RIGHT TO BUILD ORDER?

A Community Right to Build Order is a particular type of Neighbourhood Development Order. It is a route to encourage development, allowing communities to decide for themselves what is built. This might include, for example, new community facilities and affordable housing.

A proposal can be developed as part of the full neighbourhood planning process, or on its own.

WHAT IS THE DISTRICT COUNCIL'S ROLE IN NEIGHBOURHOOD PLANNING?

The Council has a 'duty to support' qualifying bodies preparing Neighbourhood Plans in accordance with the relevant regulations<sup>iv</sup>.

The support we will provide at the key stages of neighbourhood plan preparation include the following:

- confirming the geographical area of the neighbourhood plan;
- undertaking the formal consultation on the draft neighbourhood plan prior to the independent examination;
- arranging the independent examination;
- holding the referendum;
- 'making' the neighbourhood plan part of the development plan where all legal requirements have been met.

The Council will also seek to provide informal guidance and support where this is practical. This could include, for example, providing policy guidance to support neighbourhood planning steering groups.

WHAT OTHER SUPPORT IS AVAILABLE TO ME FOR NEIGHBOURHOOD PLANNING?

The council has prepared detailed guidance for Neighbourhood Planning in the form of a toolkit and a detailed handbook. Both documents are available to view on our website at:

<http://www.whitehorsedc.gov.uk/services-and-advice/planning-and-building/planning-policy/neighbourhood-plans/neighbourhood-planning>.

Further support to help you get involved in Neighbourhood Planning:

Oxfordshire County Council is also able to provide help on if the Neighbourhood Plans and has prepared its own Neighbourhood Planning Toolkit which is available online:

<https://www.oxfordshire.gov.uk/cms/public-site/planning>, is dealing with issues such as highways or education. The County Council can be contacted by visiting <https://www.oxfordshire.gov.uk/cms/public-site/contact-oxfordshire-county-council>.

You can also read case studies and find information about how support is being provided for Neighbourhood Planning through Locality, which is the national network of community-led organisations, at: <http://mycommunity.org.uk/programme/neighbourhood-planning/>.

Planning Aid England has produced guidance to help communities with Neighbourhood Planning that can be accessed at: <http://www.rtpi.org.uk/planning-aid/neighbourhood-planning/>

If you are interested in finding out if your parish or town has prepared, or is preparing a Neighbourhood Plan, please take a look at the information on our website at: <http://www.whitehorsedc.gov.uk/services-and-advice/planning-and-building/planning-policy/neighbourhood-plans>.

HOW CAN I SEE COMMENTS MADE ON PLANNING POLICY DOCUMENTS BY OTHERS?

The comments we receive on our planning policy documents will be made publically available online at the earliest opportunity, once the consultation has finished.

The comments will be made available to view at: <https://consult.southandvale.gov.uk/portal>.

HOW WILL WE RESPOND TO YOU?

For consultations on matters related to plan-making, we do receive a high volume of correspondence, and it is difficult to respond to each individual comment that we receive on a particular consultation.

We therefore publish a summary of the responses we receive from consultations and prepare reports after each stage of consultation including the Local Plan. These are called Consultation Statements.

Each Consultation Statement sets out how the comments made during the consultation have been considered before moving to the next stage of plan-making.

We make our Consultation Statements available:

- at our council offices
- at local libraries
- on our website at: <http://www.whitehorsedc.gov.uk/planning-policy>

We will acknowledge representations on planning policy submitted by email. Representations submitted by post will only receive an acknowledgement if a reply email address has been supplied.

We will not send acknowledgements to verbal comments, or comments submitted to us on feedback forms at consultation events. Those hand delivered written comments will be issued with a receipt if requested.

Comments submitted to us will generally be published on our website depending on the method of consultation.

MONITORING AND REVIEW

The council is required to prepare an Authority Monitoring Report (AMR) for the Development Plan. The AMR reports on the preparation and implementation of all Planning Policy documents.

Further information on the council's Authority Monitoring Report can be viewed and accessed from our website at: <http://www.whitehorsedc.gov.uk/services-and-advice/planning-and-building/planning-policy>

We will review our SCI at least every 3 years unless changes to legislation, Government guidance or local circumstances indicate it would be appropriate to review it earlier.
