Hi Sally

Yes they were, their house is at the bottom but on the north side of the point where it is blocked off

Thanks

Hi

Was the resident from the north side?

Many thanks

Sally

Hi Sally

The query did come from a resident, there is a sign at the Cat Street end which says there is no access to Ford Lane from Fordy Lane as the lane is a no through road and physically blocked south of those properties so all of their deliveries end up south of the blocked section, if we could legally change the name on the northern section to 'Fordy Lane' I think that would help....

Thanks

P.S. I have just purchased 6 Ford Lane which is at the southern most point of Ford Lane, the property used to belong to VWHDC and is described on the Land Registry title as '6 Fordy Lane' so I think the confusion over the road names must have been going on for decades!

Hi

The district council would have to carry out a 28-day public consultation for the 4 properties north of the bollards to request the householder's agreement to change Ford Lane in their addresses to Fordy Lane. Those three properties share a post code which is different to the rest of Ford Lane, so the only difference would be the 'Y' on the end of the street name. However, that does mean that over time they'll have to change all their personal documents.

Has the query come from one of the resident's?

Many thanks
Sally

Hi Sally

Please see below, the issue is that the properties at the bottom of road referred to as 'Fordy Lane' actually have a postal address of 'Ford Lane' but can only be accessed through 'Fordy Lane', is there any way the road north of the brook could be legally renamed as 'Fordy Lane' so that their postal address would change and therefore end the confusion?

Thanks

Good afternoon and Sally.

East Hendred Parish Council discussed this at the April meeting.

The reason for the two names was because there is not a through route from Cat Street to The Lynch. The road is blocked at the brook.

Therefore, having two names distinguishes which side of the brook is being referred to.

The Parish Council was adamant that they did not want this to change.

Kind Regards,

Clerk to East Hendred Parish Council

This is an odd one and I admit I'd not noticed this before. Whilst there is a street name plate for FORDY LANE at the north end of Ford Lane and the name is annotated on the O.S map there are no properties addressed into it

Ford Lane on the other hand extends from its junction with Cat Street in the north to its junction with The Lynch in the south.

I'll just check with the parish council and then move to change the FORDY LANE street name plate to FORD LANE.

Kind regards

Sally

Hi Sally

We have received a query with reference to Fordy Lane and Ford Lane, East Hendred, I don't suppose you have a plan that shows where one ends and the other begins?

Many thanks
